

DISCLAIMER

To the Requester:

The Executive Correspondence Service for the Prime Minister is pleased to provide you with the enclosed message from the Right Honourable Justin Trudeau. Please observe the following conditions:

1. Messages are available in both of Canada's Official Languages. Please let us know if you require a message in English, French, or both English and French. Translations can be provided with sufficient advance notice (three weeks) or otherwise after the fact.
2. This office does not pay to insert greetings messages in publications, nor does it buy advertising space. Messages that meet our normal criteria are provided on the explicit understanding that there is to be no charge to us.
3. If this message is to be printed in a program, it should appear at the front of the program, preceded only by the Governor General's message (if applicable).
4. This message may only be used for the specific date and purpose for which it was provided.
5. The message is one of greetings and good wishes for significant achievements by an individual or a group celebrating a milestone. It should not be construed as an endorsement by the Government of Canada or its employees of the views or activities of the event organizers or of its members.
6. The message should not be construed as a commitment on the part of the Government of Canada to provide financial, professional or logistical support to event organizers, or its members.
7. This message must not be used for recruiting or advertising. Advertising must not appear on the same page as the message from the Prime Minister.
8. The language of this message, the font and letterhead (Coat of Arms) should not be changed or removed. Any reformatting of the message must be resubmitted to the Executive Correspondence Service for approval prior to publication.

Thank you for your cooperation.

If you have any questions, please contact Executive Correspondence Services – Special Messages at (613) 941-6888 or pm@pm.gc.ca.
